

Let Me In

Olly Murs

Keep that light on in your window
Undo the locks and let me in
I've come seeking my salvation
The one who's lost, in search of it
The one who's lost, in search of it

Let me in and I will save you from the madness
Let me in and I will keep you from storm
With every motion, every moment that we've owned
I'll be here to break the fall

Keep that love light in your window
Till I get back home to you
Lift my heart and set your soul free
Tell me love's the only truth
Tell me love's the only truth

Let me in and I will save you from the madness
Let me in and I will keep you from storm
There's an open book of stories to be told
And I'll be here to tell them all

Oooooo... Oooooo...
Oooooo... Oooooo...
Oooooo... Oooooo...
Oooooo...

Let me in and we can fill our lives with magic Let me in and we can keep each other warm
With every motion, every moment that we hold
I'll be here to break the fall
I'm always here to break the fall
