

Dreamworld

Olsen Brothers

If you're a winner, who's always winning,
What will you choose not to fail not to loose,
And you are looking round every corner,
What will you say, when the girl comes your way.

Dreamworld I can fly,
Among the clouds over great mountains high,
Dreamworld cross the clear blue sky,
Dreamworld I can win,
A little love and the sail's full of wind,
Dreamworld let the journey begin.

If you're a dancer and like to Tango,
Open your door in a glide cross the floor.

Dreamworld I can fly,
Among the clouds over great mountains high,
Dreamworld cross the clear blue sky,
Dreamworld I can win,
A little love and the sail's full of wind,
Dreamworld let the journey begin.
