

King of Stone

OMD

Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
Gave away the love he'd know
Just to be the king of stone

The only life he's ever known {the empty world that he'd made his own}
But I don't believe I'm made of stone

Now you've seen me
Now you don't
Can you hear me
Because quite soon you won't
So save your whispers
For some other man
Because I can hear you you
And I know who I am

Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone

Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone

Once again he's all alone
Here I am the king of stone
