

The Right Side?

OMD

Let me take you with me to a city by the sea
The night is just falling. There's people on the street
He's standing at the station. Prepared to leave the town
She's lying in the bedroom. Fells like she will drown
Which is the right side?

Let me take you with me to a city by the sea
The lights are still shining. It's raining on the street
He's moving as he's falling. Tries to use the phone
She's lying in the bedroom. She never felt s alone
Which is the right side?

Let me take you with me to a city by the sea
You have to choose a side now, so which one you will be?
The boy whose heart is broken? The girl in misery?
You have to choose the right side. It's just not that easy
Which is the right side?

Come with me he's saying
Stay with me she's praying
Come with me he's saying
Stay with me she's praying
