Was It Something I Said

Was it something I said Or something you read? Is changing your mind? Is turning you around? Is somebody wrong And somebody right? What was it made up your mind? What could change overnight?

And if all of your friends Who used to be mine Come down off the fence And swear that you're fine I can hate you no more I can't even the score Almost half of my life Just fell right on the floor

Don't you come 'round here no more Don't you waste my time Don't you dare to phone me Don't you even have me on your mind

Was there someone you know Who won't let you go? They're pushing you under And bleeding you slow They don't want your time They won't give you mine Their hands in your pocket And your heart's on the line

I'm know I'm not perfect I wanted to be I have this big mouth It always contradicts me You say you don't know I say anything goes But if you think it's over Then this you should know

Don't you come 'round here no more Don't you waste my time Don't you dare to phone me Don't you even have me on your mind

Was it something I said Or something you read? Is changing your mind? Is turning you around? Is somebody wrong And somebody right? What was it made up your mind? What could change overnight?
