

Uneven Plow

Omen

You stand up top the mountain while reside in the valley
Below the distance in between would make the carnival show
I stand up for good reason while your reasons have no
Release to take your good I find equality. Holly roller Dealing but your dime doesn't make the plate. How
Ironically this does not match your claim.

Your voice heard so well my mouth burned shut like a
Prison cell wouldn't take long to see the difference
Between you and me you live and die by betrayal still your
Message gets through some how I've got to stack my side
Just to draw this uneven plow.

The money gonna buy you freedom but your a guilty son of A bitch. Looks like lady justice had her scales tipped

Your voice heard so well my mouth burned shut like a
Prison cell. Wouldn't take long to see the difference.
Between you and me you live and die by betrayal still your
Message gets through some how I've got to stack my side
Just to draw this uneven plow.
