

The Distance

Omnium Gatherum

You better
Count your days
Walk the path of the clearest fear
You better
Map your ways
Hold the wrath
Concentrate my dear

The eye of light
Is opening tonight

Something old
And some new
From the ache of being
You reach for the blue
Join the clan
Share the dance
Know the others
With the plan

A lot of grief
Oh so much joy
Ten thousand screams in the void
As the fallen call
But the walls keep the secret
And you annoyed

The eye of light
Is opening tonight

How far can you reach
Do you see?
The shoreline
Do you see...in the distance
