

The Fall Went Right Through Here

Omnium Gatherum

Whose fault is it
If one hasn't been here long enough to be happy
'Cause every day they try with branched thoughts
But they fail in something, They fail to see

Whose fault is it
If one hasn't been here long enough to be happy
'Cause every day they try with branched thoughts
But they fail in something, They fail to see

That "I'm so fucking tired, Why can't I be alright"
And for those who felt nothing this year
The fall went right through here, And here
And here with the burdens we'll have to take now

To be safe from harm, To get us through
For how long has it been there
My heart's so full of this
No leaves will line the streets

And who could ask for more, Who could ask for more
The world of my soul is all I have
To thank with all of my patience
And I don't wanna follow

The same old goddamn line
'Cause it would be too much and I would be no more
Then I wouldn't be at all, Then I wouldn't be at all
