

All Beauty Fades

One Less Reason

There was something I needed to tell you
Before your world came crashing down
You won't be lost our here forever
No matter how long the road, I'll always follow
I know I was gone long time
There was things I needed to do
Like finding my missing pieces
I know that it sounds cliché, but I made improvements, yeah
Well, I made improvements, well

And all beauty fades
And everything changed
You know that nothings gonna last forever
And the love that you hold, you'll never let go
They'll never convince you, that this wasn't real
When you heard that they died and you couldn't cry
It sure as hell wasn't from lack of trying
And all beauty fades
And everything changed
But you'll always be mine

There are years with you I never remember
Days I couldn't forget
There's I'm sorry's for the ways you were treated
Please forgive me for, the lies I've forgot to yet
Cause I just died in that door way
Your breath is where I'll begin
And when the devil take his words out of my mouth
And God touched my skin

And all beauty fades
And everything changed
You know that nothings gonna last forever
And the love that you hold, you'll never let go
They'll never convince you, that this wasn't real
When you heard that they died and you couldn't cry
It sure as hell wasn't from lack of trying
And all beauty fades
And everything changed
But you'll always be mine
You know you'll always be mine

And every time that I,
Close my eyes, I, See you running
Through that door to me
Where would I be, if you hadn't held me
You hadn't held me in your arms
Held me in your arms
Held me in your arms

And all beauty fades
And everything changed
You know that nothings gonna last forever
And the love that you hold, you'll never let go
They'll never convince you, that this wasn't real
When you heard that they died and you couldn't cry
It sure as hell wasn't from lack of trying

And all beauty fades
And everything changed
But you'll always be mine
You know you'll always be mine
