

Pocket Change

One Less Reason

Nobody walks this road with me
I tried so hard not to lose my way
I lost my way
I fall into your sea
I tried so hard but I cannot drown
I died with you today

It's getting hard to reminisce without you
It's getting hard to push this pain deep down inside
It's getting hard to reminisce without you

Time stood still today
I put you in a padlocked box
I wear around my neck
And search for words to say
'Cause any time I cross my heart
We'll never be the same

It's getting hard to reminisce without you
It's getting hard to push this pain deep down inside
It's getting hard to reminisce without you

It's getting hard to reminisce without you, without you
It's getting hard to push this pain down deep inside
No pocket change for me
The sun don't rise on you
And I wanted more and I feel this
And I swing with all I have
I won't let you die again
I can't let you die again
I won't let you die again...
