

The Wrong One

One Less Reason

You are the day
You are the reason that I'm awake
You are the ground, that moves further down, every time I fall
And when I'm afraid
You take the first steps towards my wall
You find words to say, when I'm a heartbeat away, from losing it all

I was never one for virtue
And no, I'll never get this right
I met a bullet to leave but you were on my mind
And I never meant to hurt you
When my words only come out lies
I'd give anything for a chance to say goodbye
It took me so long, to see, that I was wrong

And I was wrong

And you haven't changed
You tried so hard to keep me apart of this
They called me by name
But you took the blame
For feelings I missed

I was never one for virtue
And no, I'll never get this right
I met a bullet to leave but you were on my mind
And I never meant to hurt you
When my words only come out lies
I'd give anything for a chance to say goodbye
It took me so long, to see, that I was wrong

They don't know you, not like I do
If I can't have you
If I can't have you
No one can!

And if I burned it down to just you and me
Till the truth comes out, and you can finally see
That I returned to things I stole everyday

I was never one for virtue
And no, I'll never get this right
I met a bullet to leave but you were on my mind
And I never meant to hurt you
When my words only come out lies
I'd give anything for a chance to say goodbye
It took me so long, to see, that I was wrong
