

The Way Back

One Minute Silence

Is it not perfect over there? I have lost my way
The rope I hang on everyday, stops me from falling
While death counts every breath I take, I'm suffocating
The clouds I walk with everyday, hide demons waiting

No purpose
How pointless
It hurts me, why?
I scream in anger at this world I hate it, my
I feel so lonely
Among you
So worthless, where?
We go from here now
I don't know you tell me
Okay so

It's perfectly simple
Why I scream in anger at this world
My I sense a cold chill among you
Everybody rise

Is it no better over there? Or have you found it?
Our hearts are drowning in despair
Our souls feel grounded
The way back seems so far away
With each step fading
I'm still here dreaming up a day
One worth parading

No purpose
How pointless
It hurts me, why?
I scream in anger at this world I hate it, my
I feel so lonely
Among you
So worthless, where?
We go from here now
I don't know you tell me
Okay so

It's perfectly simple
Why I scream in anger at this world
My I sense a cold chill among you
Everybody rise
Every morning, sunshine with dead kids
Emp-TV your lives at your own risk
Why protect a game that protects this?
Everybody rise

It's too bright, It's too bright to care
It's too high, It's too high, I can't reach
It's too bright, It's too bright to care
It's too high, I just can't reach

It's too bright, it's too bright, it's too bright to care
It's too high, it's too high, I can't reach
It's too bright, it's too bright, it's too bright to care

It's too high, it's too high, I can't reach

It's perfectly simple
Why I scream in anger at this world
My I sense a cold chill among you
Everybody rise
Every morning, sunshine with dead kids
Emp-TV your lives at your own risk
Why protect a game that protects this?
Everybody rise

Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple
Everybody rise, it's perfectly simple...
