

Jack The Flipper (where's My Bodyguard)

One Morning Left

Flipping elbow,
Hahahaha,
Rise,

Wo-ooo-o wo-ooo-o
Let's get this party started (4x)

Rise, most beautiful day, I ever seen, I create my own love of beauty
You set me free once again

Step a side make up your own mind
Bree once again bree once again breee
Make your own mind bree once again free

I wish I had something more to give than myself,
Sometimes I fear it's not enough.
Apathy runs in my veins,
And I want to go down.

This is my worst
This is my worst

This is my worst nightmare
I wish I had something more to give than myself,
Sometimes I fear it's not enough.
Apathy runs in my veins,
Roses on my grave, breetardead

Everything I have Everything I have, is not is not much.

Everything I have you set me free is not much
