

Bombs Away

ONE OK ROCK

This is the end of you and me
And I'm never going back
Before my broken soul begins
To fade to black

And if I could show you now
Let you see the future
Burning out, burning out
This is confirmation

The higher up I get
I bury it, bury it
The higher up I get

Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Come on, it's the only way
Save yourself for a better day
No, no, we are falling down
I know, you know this is over
Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Now we're falling...now we're falling down

The higher up I get
I bury it, bury it
The higher up I get

Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Come on, it's the only way
Save yourself for a better day
No, no, we are falling down
I know, you know this is over
Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Now we're falling...now we're falling down

Singing loud so I can hear
In my head, in my head
I'm feeling restless
Hanging by a broken thread
In my head, in my head, in my head

Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Come on, it's the only way
Save yourself for a better day
No, no, we are falling down
I know, you know this is over
Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
Now we're falling...now we're falling down

Tick tick tock and it's bombs away
