

Rose Blood

ONE OK ROCK

When your shadow remains me like a rose
I would think to hold you tight Even your thorn stabs to my skin Won't let you leave yeah

It is alright to me, the pain well become Luscious, agonizing, nectar to me yeah

Itsumade mo kore kara mo masshiroi bara wo sakashite mo ore morotomo kimi wo akaku someru kara
So don't be afraid
kono yo e to hana sakase soshite mae e mae e mae e
How much white the blooming rose is, I don't care

I guess, there would be only me and bees Addicted to your sweetness
It's just like the honey of flowers
It's your innocent smile
I will be taking every bit of you
With my heart, my soul, my stronger love
I surely defeat the bumbling bee

Itsumade mo kore kara mo masshiroi bara wo sakasete mo ore morotomo kimi wo akaku someru kara
So don't be afraid
kono yo e to hana sakase soshite mae e mae e mae e
How much white the blooming rose is, I don't care
itsumade mo kore kara mo masshiroi bara wo sakasete mo ore no makka na chi de akaku someru kara
So don't be afraid
kono yo e to hana sakase soshite mae e mae e mae e
How much white the blooming rose is, I don't care

Yeah ..Yeah ..Yeah

Itsumade mo kore kara mo masshiroi bara wo sakasete mo
ore morotomo kimi wo akaku someru kara
So don't be afraid
kono yo e to hana sakase soshite mae e mae e mae e
How much white the blooming rose is, I don't care
