

Worst in Me

ONE OK ROCK

I used to think that you were mine, mine
Now I know it's just a lie, lie
Guess I should've seen the signs, signs, oh
Used to think that you were mine, mine

All you do is take, take, take
But you're giving me nothing, giving me nothing
Why you're such a fake, fake, fake?
Always asking for something, asking for something
You give a smile but you lie through your teeth
Right on the surface, stuck underneath
I try not to look, but it's easy to see
You are the worst in me
You are the worst in me

I always felt like something's wrong, wrong
I let this go on way too long, long
I won't miss you when you're gone, gone
Always felt like something's wrong, wrong

All you do is take, take, take
But you're giving me nothing, giving me nothing
Why you're such a fake, fake, fake?
Always asking for something, asking for something
You give a smile but you lie through your teeth
Right on the surface, stuck underneath
I try not to look, but it's easy to see
You are the worst in me

Gotta let you know
Gotta let you go for good
You thought I never would
But that's the old me
Gotta let you go for good, for good, for good

All you do is take, take, take
But you're giving me nothing, giving me nothing
Why you're such a fake, fake, fake?
Always asking for something, asking for something
You give a smile but you lie through your teeth
Right on the surface, stuck underneath
I try not to look, but it's easy to see
You are the worst in me
You are the worst in me
You are the worst in me
