

21st Century

One-Way Mirror

No blind
No blind

I know something else to crush you into pieces
It's coming right now
Here for nothing else except the ashes
Feed itself on infamy

No, there's nothing strong enough between you and me
No, nothing's strong enough to forestall me

Blind, they want to kill you
Blind, too proud to save you

I can feel it coming
We're letting this growing inside
'Cause we're blind
I can feel it knocking
We're letting this fking inside
'Cause we're blind
We're blind

This revelation, you think
Is making you stronger
Determination, you think
Is enough to fk me deeper

No, there's nothing strong enough between you and me
No, nothing's strong enough to forestall me

Blind, they want to kill you
Blind, too proud to save you

I can feel it coming
We're letting this growing inside
'Cause we're blind
I can feel it knocking
We're letting this fking inside
'Cause we're blind
We're blind

What is the difference between me
And the twenty first century?

I can feel it coming
We're letting this growing inside
'Cause we're blind
I can feel it knocking
We're letting this fking inside
'Cause we're blind
We're blind

I know something else to crush you into pieces
It's coming right now
Here for nothing else except the ashes
Go fk yourself!
