

As You Are Now

One-Way Mirror

You're fading away
Scraping your head until it bleeds
Was that made for you
You tried to rape my soul
You tried to take control through my soul
I know
I know you're trying to fly but
You'll never get my piece of the pie
My piece of the pie
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
As you are now
You're crying on your ashes
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
Where have you gone now
Will you someday find your own place
Will you some day take your fking damn chance
Just take a look over the world
You want to take over the world
Just take over the world
I know you're trying to fly but
You'll never get my piece of the pie
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
As you are now
You're crying on your ashes
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
Where have you gone now
Where have you gone now
Will you someday find your own place
Will you some day take your fking damn chance
Just take a look over the world
You want to take over the world
Just take over the world
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
As you are now
You're crying on your ashes
As you are now
You're falling into pieces
Where have you gone now
Where have you gone now
As you are now
As you are now
As you are now
As you are now
