

Danger Calling

One-Way Mirror

I feed on danger
My life is constantly at risk
The threat is just another step
I have no fear at all
I'm waiting for an ultimatum
Gonna get myself the next cold sweat
I'm high on sheer anticipation
Your finger on the trigger
I stand up
My body can endure any fking thing
I keep turning the pressure up
My body can endure any fking thing
Shine
Through this crushing
Screen
Don't you overwhelm me
It leads us away
And my involuntary erection
Leads me to uncontrolled ejaculation
I savor the vision of my pupils dilating
My muscles are blocked on a hundred percent
I swallow explosives like they're hot cakes
Do you dread?
Do you play?
When you life is bet
Priceless
Shine
Through this crushing
Screen
Don't you overwhelm me
It leads us away
I feed on danger
My life is constantly at risk
The threat is just another step
I have no fear at all
I'm waiting for an ultimatum
Gonna get myself the next cold sweat
The next cold sweat
