

A Point In Time

OneSideZero

your temptations are ugly moving forward by stumbling breathing in all that we see holding all that we could be hold your breath
I feel so alive
save yourself
I feel so alive
hold your breath
I feel so alive
save yourself
I feel so alive
all dressed up on a Sunday the funeral mourners await the rain holding on to what we prayed for although you said you could not breathe at all
hold your breath
I feel so alive
save yourself
I feel so alive
hold your breath
I feel so alive
save yourself
I feel so alive
your temptations are ugly
in our own...
