

like the sea you are water pushing for change all that I can see is a pool of rain wish I thought of this much sooner it felt so right
all the secrets soak can put out the flame
after all you were right
so beautiful
held the wrongs from the rights
open mind show me your details and more believe only what you see so wrong
so beautiful
