

The Day We Lied

OneSideZero

I'll tuck you in make sure the noose is tight moving from side to side inhibits your will to fight I'll hold you always clipping your wings away laughing at your dismay until your end is crowned hold you always
beauty in your eyes
escape to your world please ambush your thoughts this way believe in this love affair collecting your silent pleas comfort all your fears but I'll hold you always
tying you up this way
hold you always beauty in your eyes escape to your world please
I'm holding you always I'm clipping your wings away don't you wish you could fly I'll come close, the end is near
