

Her Best Words Were Goodbye

Onward To Olympus

All you said was all for nothing
Your lies, the betrayal
I believed as the truth
Now the wool has been removed

And now I see you for who you are
And now I see you for who you are

I pour my heart out in declaration
This is the end
I have buried your memory

Time was so truly wasted you were a dream to me
Time was so truly wasted you were a dream to me

Surely we will not fall for your trap
When you return to save this place
We will fight to see you fail
We will fight to see you fail
