

Crucified

Oomph!

All your might
All your pain
All your tears
When I'm right before you
All you've gained
All my sins
All my fault
All my fear
Swelling up inside me
All is lost

You changed the world forever
Just with your heart of gold
You changed the world forever
Now you've been bought and sold

Let me be crucified
On you
Let me be tantalised
By you
Open up your spirit
And reveal yourself anew
Let me be crucified
On you

All your sweat
All your blood
All your grief
When I'm right before you
Where is god?
All my doubt
All my will
All my lust
Swelling up inside me
All I feel

You changed the world forever
Just with your heart of gold
You changed the world forever
Now you've been bought and sold

Let me be crucified
On you
Let me be tantalised
By you
Open up your spirit
And reveal yourself anew
Let me be crucified
On you

Let me be crucified
On you
Let me be tantalised
By you
Open up your spirit
And reveal yourself anew
Let me be crucified

On you
