This highway divides one more day, They said it's suicide for me to run away, How long will I survive, I think to myself, How far will this go, Only they know, One more day from suicide, I don't buy this shit, These situations arise but it's ok, I see through jaded eyes, Don't worry I'm on my way, One fine day, I will be back, I'll return again, One fine day, I said: "Hey man, I'm on my way." One fine day is all I need now.
