I need to stay focused.
 I need to believe in myself again.
 I need to get it all out.
 I feel so alive...
 I feel so alive...
And only want some to get my things together and I only want t o hold it down,
And I will.
 I'm so alive now...
 And I'm home again.
Will they have faith in us?
 They'll know when it feels right.
 It's just you and me
Lets leave this all behind and I only want to get my things to gether.
And I want to hold it down,
And I will.
 I feel ok...
 I feel alright now
 I feel ok with what's inside.
 In these times of doubt. I know this is what it's all about. S o now...
 The futures unknown.
Man,
 I can't do this alone.
 If this is the end... then here we go again.
