

Vulnerability

Operation Ivy

I saw this guy go down
Wasn't time for fear
Before his body hit the ground

Our vulnerability is all our insensitivity
Car that hit him pulled to a stop
Driver hid the bottles
He anticipated cops

Crowd assembled to take a look at death
Shattered skull fragile body
Blacktop running red

People looked bored
Like expecting more
People looked bored like expecting more

And sympathy is only freindships whore you know
And maybe we dont know who we are anymore
Another spectacle and its respectable
To take it lightly like another tv show
So desensitized so dehumanized
Why stop and think when you can find someplace to go
Were drowning

And its gonna be the death of us just you wait and see
