

Mellotron Heart

Opeth

I lost all I had
I turned to my friends
I wrote down a name
I wallowed in shame

I said that I loved
I cling to my past
I promise to stay
I went far away

Icy roads beneath my feet
Lead me through wastelands of deceit
Rest your head now, don't you cry
Don't ever ask the reason why

Kept inside our idle race
Ghosts of an idol's false embrace
Rest your head now, don't you cry
Don't ever ask the reason why
