Orange 9mm

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Do you wanna cling to nothing?

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Don't you wanna take your chances?

There's been times when I've been
So close and held out, fell down, lost count
When my own exhaust exceeds me
And my drive is in doubt

I've been a host to failure
When I start to forget
To remind myself the reasons
And I hold my breath for too long

[Inaudible] praises no one

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna cling to nothing?

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Don't you wanna take your chances?

I've been told decisive isn't helpful
But sometimes it cures
The slow into resourceful
With reaction as the lure

Simple doesn't matter
Disguised as the complex
A fraction of disaster
And we try to forget for too long

[Inaudible]
[Inaudible] praises no one

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna cling to nothing?

Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Or do you wanna keep holdin' on and on?
Do you wanna watch yourself fly?
Don't you wanna take your chances?
