

Take You Away

Orange 9mm

Up tight, you better realize
I never hide and I'll never get high alone
'Cuz of the simple fact

Some say you like to get a lot
I call it greed but I will never get high alone
It just don't mean the same thing

There won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from me

You're so blind, open your eyes
I know you'll see that I'll never get mine alone
'Cuz I don't care about it

Diseased, you better realize
I'm on my knees and I'll never get mine alone
It just don't mean the same thing

There won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from me

There won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from me

There won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away
I said, there won't be nothing that will tear us apart
Can't take you away from me
