

Lunarville 7, Airlock 3

Orange Goblin

At Lunarville 7, down at Airlock 3
There lives the old magician called Infinity
Sweet father of illusion, child of the stone
The Astral Wizard Master in a cosmic home

The Dragon Lord of Jupiter and Spaceblock One
The crimson void inertia and the seventh sun
Rider of the starchild unicorn, he saves
Children of eternity in astral graves

At Lunarville 7, down at Airlock 3
There dwells the evil spacewitch called Eternity
The Equinox of Saturn, Queen of Fire and Ice
Princess nocturnal demon, mistress of the night

She sails upon a meteoric butterfly
Through poison clouds of acid in a nitrate sky
Her quest for domination of the galaxy
She rids the universe of all infinity

Heaven in a nitrate sky
Beyond imagination's eye
Take my hand, with me you'll fly
Man you've never been this high

It's heaven in a nitrate sky
Beyond imagination's eye
Take my hand, with me you'll fly
Man you've never been this high

At Lunarville 7, down at Airlock 3
There's mountains made of crystal and a sonic sea
A psychedelic sunrise at the dawn of time
Electric moons that hum the tunes that blow your mind

Infinity the Wizard rides the starchild skies
And gathers rainbow diamonds for the Star Queen's eyes
Eternity the Spacewitch on her butterfly
Spreads dark and evil magic where the wizard rides

Heaven in a nitrate sky
Beyond imagination's eye
Take my hand, with me you'll fly
Man you've never been this high
