

The continuation of a dream
Certainly it's to make me smile...
Even when people get hurt, I walk on...
I'm going down a road that I believe in
So on this journey, I know that
An unchanging love
Is going to be next to me
On this road that continues on for a long ways
I'm going to boldly walk on, with all my might, wo

I wish, lala, that if you smile
For everyone throughout the world to be happy
I wish, lala
Say hello to what's waiting
Lala, lala
Cross road, lala...

It's tough to look back on it, bitter
It's like this world is in monochrome, but
From that time that I started walking
It's been changing, before I know it
A picture from the past is once again
In my color
That alone...

I wish, lala, that if you smile
For everyone throughout the world to be happy
I wish, lala
Say hello to what's waiting
Lala, lala

I wish, lala, that if you smile
For everyone throughout the world to be happy
I wish, lala
Say hello to what's waiting
Lala, lala
Cross road, lala...

It's tough to look back on it, bitter
It's like this world is in monochrome, but
From that time that I started walking
It's been changing, before I know it
A picture from the past is once again
In my color
That alone...
