

Marching Dogs Of War

Orchid

Thunder breaks the silent ground, lightning cracks the sky
Children clutching mother's hands as fathers prepare to die
Nobody knows the reasons, nobody seems to care
Echo of boots on the frozen ground
Death on the move everywhere

Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide
From those marching dogs of war
Oh yeah
Marching dogs of war
Oh yeah

Doors are standing splintered
Walls set burning down
Mindless beasts that roam the land
The hatred machine turning round
They never question the reasons
They never question who dies
Dogs on the move through the frozen night
Blood in their merciless eyes

Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide
Nowhere to run to, nowhere to hide
From those marching dogs of war
Oh yeah
Marching dogs of war
Oh yeah
Marching dogs of war
Nowhere to hide
From those marching dogs of war
Nowhere to run
From those marching dogs of war

Oh yeah
Marching dogs of war
Oh yeah
Marching dogs of war
Nowhere to hide
From those marching dogs of war
Nowhere to run
From those marching dogs of war
