

Nomad

Orchid

High above the earth I find my way
Running from tomorrow's yesterdays
Drinking all the sadness from my head
Soaring through the darkness like the dead

Nomad, Nomad
Chase the sun again
Nomad, will this ever end?

Falling from the sky we touch the sand
Strangers to a new and stranger land
Nameless faces move across my eyes
A single story told a thousand times

Nomad, Nomad
Chase the sun again
Nomad, will this ever end?

Somewhere out on the horizon
There's a part of me that's free
Moving far beyond the silence
Only gods and monsters know the nomad's dream

Moving in the shadows like a ghost within a dream
Pushing through the madness in my mind
Feet that move without me like a puppet on a string
Longing for a place I left behind
God I know I can't get free
The nomad's me, oh yeah
God I know I can't get free
The nomad's me, oh yeah
The nomad's me, oh yeah

Ragged winged and faded engines burn
Home to love and laughter I return
Hours soon turn to days that never end
The restless nomad dreams his dream again

Nomad, Nomad
Chase the sun again
Nomad, will this ever end?
Nomad, chase the sun again
Nomad, will this ever end?
