

Of Downfall And Decline

Orden Ogan

Silence lies over the town
Smoke and dust everywhere you
Look around
We both stand on the hill
Where once the old one stood
And look over the place that once
Was a symbol for the good

We brought darkness,
Downfall and death
A thousand souls in the fire
We were puppets
And fools in this mess
But put an end to the liar

Now all is done
We're the ones that prevailed
All of the hope is gone
Now all is gone
We're the ones that have failed
All of our work is done

Ashes trickle
Through my fingers
A fateful ruin
Is everything that lingers
A single doll I saved
A silent witness, well-behaved
I will keep you in loving memory
And the sun goes down

We are the hearts
That remain
Easton Hope
We'll never
See you again
We are the hearts
That remain
Easton Hope
We'll never
See you again

All we believed in
All that we lived for
All of the hope
Is forever lost now
