To New Shores Of Sadness

Orden Ogan

From our backyard we heard them shout And ran like kids to the sea crying faces were all around I knew before I could see

JOIN US WE'RE LOOSENING THE ROPES AND SAIL TO NEW SHORES OF SADNESS

In the silence of the night we knew that they'd never come back to the place where we still feel home A story so silent and sad

Sometimes there is a voice in the wind Listen and you will hear them sing

JOIN US WE'RE LOOSENING THE ROPES AND SAIL TO NEW SHORES OF SADNESS

We'll break the waves and blind the eye of the storm The sea will be our grave cause the price may be our life
