

To the End

Orden Ogan

For a lifetime she had dark thoughts on her mind
Always knowing that the menace grew
Facing her fate she's screaming:
"I don't wanna live forever!"
She takes her cloak and asks them: "Why do you?"

Our minds and our will they can never break
Our freedom is something they can never take
Their world and order will soon come undone
Our legacy is something they will never overcome

FATE!
In all these tears we will survive...will survive
Like the saints we will ascend...
FATE!
A thousand years we'll be alive...be alive!
Let us take it to the end!
Straight to the end!

Smoke is rising as they set the world on fire
Caressed by warmth and a golden light
They expect her screaming
But all she does is roar with laughter
And they know that she is goddamn right...

We'll take the world by storm
In death we are one
We'll take the world by storm

FATE!
In all these tears we will survive...will survive
Like the saints we will ascend...
FATE!
A thousand years we'll be alive...be alive!
Let us take it to the end!
Straight to the end!

FATE!
In all these tears we will survive...will survive
Like the saints we will ascend...
FATE!
A thousand years we'll be alive...be alive!
Let us take it to the end!
Straight to the end!
