

We Are Pirates

Orden Ogan

Three trials before you leave the shore:

Mastering the sword,
Learn the art of thievery
And find treasures galore

Get a ship and a crew of three
And search the foreign lands
And when the wind of hell embraces thee
You'll gain the idol of many hands

A black sky above, our kingdom beneath
Die in the waves or live on your knees

Come, raise the flag of the fallen
We reign the storm and the seas
And live our lives on the brink of death
WE'RE PIRATES! And we are free

Prove your courage and touch the gruesome winged devil
Trust the navigator's head
For all the rum and grog don't forget to revel
For tomorrow you could be dead

And beware of falling in love at all
Or your heart will beat inside a chest
'guess you figured it out - what I recall 's
Another story from another quest

A black sky above, our kingdom beneath
Die in the waves or live on your knees

Come, raise the flag of the fallen
We reign the storm and the seas
And live our lives on the brink of death
WE'RE PIRATES! And we are free

Come, raise the flag of the fallen
We reign the storm and the seas
And live our lives on the brink of death
WE'RE PIRATES! And we are free
