

Welcome Liberty

Orden Ogan

We are the fist
Of the fallen ones
The demise of
This lost nation
The loss of aspiration
We're on a path
Far beyond our fate
Knee-deep in the dead
Cold inside and
Mad from hate
There's no forgiveness
And we'll pay the price
Nothingness regains
Territory lost to vice
Once everyone was
Free in this land
Now a thousand
Year old legacy
Gives away
To seas of sand

All you
All men in the dark
You never saw
The light of day
Never were alive

Welcome liberty
All life is changing
No more unity
In a world
Rearranging

The threat is gone
But will we find
A place to leave
The pain behind?
Faces change
And so do the names
Just the sorrow
Stays the same
And day by day
I look into
What is left of
Good thoughts
In their heads
Between anger and hate
There's nothing left
No salvation
Everything inside is dead

All you
All men in the dark
You never saw
The light of day
Never were alive

Welcome liberty
All life is changing
No more unity
In a world
Rearranging

One for all
And all for one
Two stand tall
While all is gone
Three times we had
To be the night
For there's just one way
To reach the light

Welcome liberty
All life is changing
No more unity
In a world
Rearranging
