

An Ending In Fire

Order From Chaos

Refrain from illusion of a world eternal
And on that last perfect day...
To fall and be forgotten...
(The) Lord of Worlds is exhausted
An absolution by fire begins

Elements of life consumed
Collapse recommences
(The) Volatile ash rends the core
A grotesque Phoenix distending...

Ever nearer...

Affirmation, An Ending in Fire
Atmosphere and oceans boiling: diffusion to space
Final ebb of life, to all tenements of clay
Provincial Earth and inferious immersed
The wellspring's reclamation by nuclear fire
The remnant of the paroxysm
A cenotaph of what has been
The doleful reminder - An Ending in Fire
