Don't Tell Me That It's Over

Orianthi

So cold, it's not just the breeze
Now that I'm standing alone, we used to be
And I tell myself I'll be alright, once I'm back in your arms
Till that day, I'll keep holding on

If I close my eyes, thats when I'll see you
If I dream tonight, thats when I'll feel you
Can you feel this too?
Am I coming through?
Don't tell me that it's over

So old, been living each day
I've tried my best to move on, stuck in this crazy place
But I tell myself I'll be alright, once I'm back in your arms
Till that day, I'll keep holding on

If I close my eyes, thats when I'll see you
If I dream tonight, thats when I'll feel you
Can you feel this too?
Am I coming through?
Don't tell me that it's over

If I close my eyes, thats when I'll see you
If I dream tonight, thats when I'll feel you

If I close my eyes, thats when I'll see you
If I dream tonight, thats when I'll feel you
Can you feel this too?
Am I coming through?
Don't tell me that it's over
