

Ocean Land (The Revelation)

Orphaned Land

"Before eyes that are blind no more
A sight unseen that tears the soul
All we ever loved and known Into mass graves is what we're shown"

"We see an ocean once was land"
& So they come to understand
This place where man used to be born
Will be man's water throne

"All that was magical, beautiful, will be gone"
These measures call for divine intervention
"All the achievements of man, one will stand all alone"
One the survives the final selection
"The sand in the hourglass, moves so fast, slow the sand And nothing that mankind has strived for will be all in ocean land"

The rain will fall then Filling the dried land

"Here are we servants three,
flesh and blood
Poor and weak,
hear thou speak of the flood"

It must be a sign
A message from God's hand
