

The Sahara's Storm

Orphaned Land

I call the mighty prophet
Taint my sword with blood
Help in my holy "Jihad"
As I tear, kill and maim
All is done in your name

For me God shall do the same
My faith is left to blame
Even though our God is one
You will just spill blood
It shall be done

This all shall die
Fire from the sky
Cannot ask God why
This kingdom cry?
Open my eyes
See only sand
It shatters all life
And kills the land
I drown in myself
Of the heat
In the desert storm

War of gods, you cannot deny
Into damnation we shall fly
I am becoming all and all becoming me
When all has been said and all has been done
Now it ends
Can rise no sun

Let thy will lead us on

Infidels that worship the worm
Shall bring Sahara's storm
