The Truth Within

Orphaned Land

Fons et origo boni ple luxque perenis Salvificet pietas tua nos bone rector, eleison

The golden wine flows through my veins
I know the meaning behind the holy words
A lesson must be learned - so listen all
Let your heart rule or we all must fall
We cry out for help, a prayer for your soul
When you will know the end is near,
you will faster crawl

The whole body withdraws with the pain of birth And once again I know the true meaning of life Once again I know that looking through their eyes ... As they came with their love... I know the truth of life and it lies before my eyes The truth lies within you know The truth lies within the holy words
