

Grin Of Madness

Orpheus

Flickering light, moving shadow,
In the realm of my mind, (my mind),
Chaotic as always, stable thoughts denied,
A clarity banished, and paranoia, frustration, anxiety

Body, soul, mind have all, separated,
Confusion, the last remnant

Curl into a ball, become unborn again,
Drown in the sorrow, now this is the end

Look around, nothing makes sense,
All that was, no longer is,
All that could be, was merely a dream

The maniacal laugh, that you don't fear,
The taunting words (defeat), that you can only feel

This grin of madness, (upon my face),
The scar of fear, your eternal sadness, is all you fear
This grin of madness, (upon my face),
The scar of fear, your eternal sadness, is all you fear

Curl into a ball, become unborn again,
Drown in the sorrow, now this is the end
Curl into a ball, become unborn again,
Drown in the sorrow, now this is the end
