

Minds Betrayal

Orpheus

Losing strength,
Losing sleep,
Thoughts run wild and feelings die,
Seeking help to no avail,
Lost in thought, your mind's betrayal,
Can you feel them in the night?
When they cause their constant fright,
In your mind can you here,
Dreams that fail and disappear.

Don't try to run, don't try to hide, yourself,
No one can help you they are blind,
Search within yourself and you will find
The answer clear and now defined,
The answer clear and now defined.

You're losing sleep,
you're losing strength,
Seeking help to no avail,
Lost in thought, your mind's betrayal,
Can you feel them in the night?
When they cause their constant fright,
Seeking help to no avail,
Lost in thought, your mind's betrayal.

Don't try to run, don't try to hide, yourself,
No one can help you they are blind,
Search within yourself and you will find
The answer clear and now defined.
