

60 MPH

Otherwise

I sleep at 60 mph
I feel my life go by
And I swear
I see you in the rearview mirror
I watch you wave goodbye
It's alright
It's alright now baby
It's just goodbye
It's alright now baby

With curtains drawn and headlights on
In the morning I'll be gone
My past becomes just another song
One more show
Yeah, it's time to go

I sleep at 60 mph
I feel my life go bye
And i swear
I see you in the rearview mirror
I watch you wave goodbye
It's alright
It's alright now baby

I made you laugh, I made you cry
I brought you down and you got me high
So no more trying, no more lying
No more asking why

I sleep at 60 mph
I feel my life go by
And I swear
I see you in the rearview mirror
I watch you wave goodbye
It's alright
It's alright now baby

One day we'll meet in Vegas baby
One of your favorite places
And maybe we'll pass each other by
I hope you smile

I sleep at 60 mph
I feel my life go by
And I swear
I see you in the rearview mirror
I gotta watch you wave goodbye
It's alright
Ooh, ohoh
Ooh, ohoh
It's alright now baby
It's just goodbye
Ooh, ohoh
Ooh, ohoh
It's alright now baby
It's just goodbye
