

Demon Fighter

Otherwise

Fighting down the demons with the fire in my hand
You're the reason that I needed to take this final stand

Cold heart black void like an ocean
Got caught in the undertow
Anger is my dearest emotion
Poison the antidote
Dead eyes in the face of reflection
Stare down the path you chose
Every step is a test of devotion
One breath...
A chance for hope, hope...

Fighting down the demons with the fire in my hand
You're the reason that I needed to take this final stand

Breakdown in a bittersweet wasteland
Reach out to let it go
Caught a glimpse of a long lost innocence
One kiss...
A chance for hope, hope...

Fighting down the demons with the fire in my hand
You're the reason that I needed to take this final stand
Rising from the ashes, running on the edge
Forever fighting demons
I'll ride it to, ride it to...

Night after night, night after night
I feel so alive, feel so alive
Throughout the fight
I feel so alive

Fighting down the demons with the fire in my hand
You're the reason that I needed to take this final stand
Rising from the ashes, running on the edge
Forever fighting demons
I'll ride it to, ride it to...

THE BITTER END
THE BITTER END.
