

Full Circle

Otherwise

One by one the days fall away,
Leaving me no escape,
With the weight of the world hanging over me.

Gotta keep from going under,
Won't bury me alive.
Gotta get, get out from under,
To let the fear run dry.

There's no way it's taking me, taking me tonight.

'Cause I still believe, inside of me,
There's someone not unspoken, someone not so broken.
I still believe, in spite of me,
And what I have become,
I'll find the one I used to be,
To bring me full circle.

Suddenly it's all coming clear,
That what I have lost and what has led me here, was all a lie.
Gotta keep from going under,
Gotta leave it all behind.
Gotta get, get out from under,
To let the shadow die.

There's no way it's taking me, taking me alive.

'Cause I still believe, inside of me,
There's someone not unspoken, someone not so broken.
I still believe, in spite of me,
And what I have become,
I'll find the one I used to be.

The secrets that I keep,
The lies that I would tell,
The truth that I would hide,
Are poisoning the well.
But I'm not giving in, no,
To the enemy inside,
It'll never take me without a fight.

'Cause I still believe, inside of me,
There's someone not unspoken, someone not so broken.
I still believe, in spite of me,
And what I have become,
I'll find the one I used to be.
To bring me full circle.
To bring me full circle.
