

Heaven

Otherwise

I never believed that your soul could be stolen from me,
Who can save me from the monster that I used to be?
So if you hear me now,
Won't you just send me a sign?
Do I make you proud?
Tell me that I'm doing fine.

Whoa, if I could I'd fly away,
And talk to the angels,
And beg them to please let me stay.

Can you hear me? I'm calling across the divide.
Will I see you? Maybe in some other life?
So if you hear me now,
Won't you just send me a sign?
I see your face in the clouds,
The moon and the stars when they shine.

Whoa, if I could I'd fly away,
And talk to the angels,
And beg them to please let me stay.
'Cause Heaven, no Heaven, I'll never see,
What can I do to bring you back to me?

Will we meet again in another life?
Wait for me on the other side,
Won't you help me to see the light.

Whoa, if I could I'd fly away,
And talk to the angels,
And beg them to please let me stay.
'Cause Heaven, no Heaven, I'll never see,
What can I do to bring you back to me?
What can I do to bring you back to me?
What can I do to bring you back to me?
